VISITS

Amelia Trompf is a Melbourne-based children's author, who is also a trained primary school teacher. Amelia's debut picture book Who is Fitzy Fox? is a thoughtful but funny story about the quest for identity and unconditional love.

Amelia is very excited to share her new book with students and every visit is designed to engage & help encourage a life long love of literature. Amelia has public liability insurance to $10m and a current VIT card. Amelia offers a range of school visits that can be tailored to suit your students' needs. Amelia will provide newsletters and posters for the event.
